Arnerich Massena Announces New Principals Alicia Johnston and David Vaughan

- Alicia Johnston, Director of Human Resources, Named Principal of the Firm –
- David Vaughan, Director of Information Technology, Named Principal of the Firm –

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 11, 2017 — Portland-based investment firm Arnerich Massena announced today that Alicia Johnston, director of human resources, and David Vaughan, director of information technology, have been named principals of the firm, joining the shareholder group. Arnerich Massena became 100% employee-owned in January 2017, with the shareholder group comprised of 11 senior staff members.

Tony Arnerich, CEO, commented, “Alicia and David are both long-time, dedicated employees of Arnerich Massena who have contributed enormously to the firm over their tenure.” He continues, “I’m excited about their addition to our team, and I’m proud to call them partners.”

Alicia Johnston, as director of human resources, is responsible for all areas of human resources, including employee relations, recruitment, and administration of employee benefit programs. She also oversees the firm’s administrative team. Ms. Johnston joined Arnerich Massena in 2009 and previously served as technology coordinator, marketing and administrative coordinator, and senior administrative assistant. She holds a B.A. from Colorado College and a Certificate of Comprehensive Human Resource Management from Portland State University Professional Development Center.
