Arnerich Massena Hosts a Learn Share Connect Event: Retirement Plan Best Practices: What Every Fiduciary Should Know

PORTLAND, Ore., January 30, 2014—Arnerich Massena Inc., an independent investment advisory firm specializing in retirement plan advisory services and forward-thinking investment strategies, hosted its first Learn Share Connect event of 2014, a half-day conference in the San Francisco bay area, to help retirement plan sponsors become better fiduciaries.

Retirement Plan Best Practices: What Every Fiduciary Should Know featured experts from around the country, including representatives from Cooley LLP, California ISO, Moss Adams LLP, and JP Morgan. These panels of experts discussed fiduciary best practices and operational best practices to support fiduciary requirements and retirement plan administration.

“Employers face many challenges meeting the fiduciary requirements of sponsoring a retirement plan,” said Scott Dunbar, senior managing director. “Our purpose is to help sponsors understand the most up-to-date best practices to support their fiduciary responsibilities.”

The event was well-attended, and initial feedback suggests that the conference met its objectives successfully. “It exceeded our expectations,” Dunbar noted. “I’m pleased that we could be of service in educating plan sponsors about a topic as important as how to be better fiduciaries.”
