Arnerich Massena Announces New Hire: Allison Grebe Lee

PORTLAND, Ore., April 30, 2014—Arnerich Massena, an independent investment advisory firm specializing in retirement plan advisory services and forward-thinking investment strategies, announces the recent hire of Allison Grebe Lee as business development officer and relationship manager. In this role, Grebe Lee's responsibilities will include business development and client relations for the firm's institutional advisory services.

Ms. Grebe Lee comes to Arnerich Massena with more than eight years of industry experience. Previously, she served as the director of business development for R.V. Kuhns & Associates, Inc., where she was responsible for all business development efforts including managing the business development team.

"We are very fortunate that our firm has been able to continually attract the top talent our industry has to offer," said Scott Dunbar, Arnerich Massena's senior managing director. "We are excited to welcome Ms. Grebe Lee, and I think our clients will benefit from the growing depth of our team."

Allison Grebe Lee holds a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Portland and a Master of Business Administration from Trinity College in Dublin, Ireland. She earned her Executive Certificate of Financial Planning from the University of Portland. Allison serves on the Ainsworth Foundation Board and is a member of the Multnomah Athletic Club Communications Committee.
