PORTLAND, Ore., October 5, 2016 —Arnerich Massena Inc., an independent investment advisory firm specializing in retirement plan consulting, wealth management services, and innovative investment strategies, is pleased to announce that Ryan Cunningham, CAIA, has recently been featured in a video interview, “The Investment Line-up of the Future,” with Plansponsor.com editor Alison Cooke-Mintzer.

What are some of the key issues and trends retirement plan sponsors should consider when crafting the investment line-up of the future? Arnerich Massena consultant Ryan Cunningham, CAIA, discusses the answer to this question with Alison Cooke-Mintzer, editor of PlanSponsor Magazine, in a short video interview. Knowing how difficult it is for plan sponsors to navigate all the trends, topics, and issues in the industry, Mr. Cunningham provides some guidance to help sponsors understand what areas will be important as we move into the future. In the video, he addresses issues such as white labeling, active versus passive investment management, and ESG/impact investing.

“Arnerich Massena has the tools and knowledge to guide plan sponsors in crafting an investment line-up for the future,” says Terri Schwartz, managing director of institutional services and business development. “Ryan Cunningham does a fantastic job in this interview of laying out the core issues that will be facing plan sponsors going forward, and showcasing the expertise we can offer in these areas.”
