Arnerich Massena's I AM Learning Partnership Will Host
School/Community Carnival *Soup for the Soul

PORTLAND, Ore., May 14, 2018 — Arnerich Massena Inc., an independent investment advisory firm, announced today that its I AM Learning Partnership community service program will be partnering with Imperfect Produce to host "Soup for the Soul," a school/community carnival to benefit the Oregon Food Bank.

This student-led fair will take place at Irvington Elementary (1320 NE Brazee St.) from 3-5pm on Friday, May 18, and is open to community members with a $5 entry fee. Event-goers can enjoy crafts for sale, raffles, games, and soup, and all proceeds will help the Oregon Food Bank in its mission to end hunger. Tony and Christine Arnerich, principals of Arnerich Massena, will match the carnival funds, doubling the donation to the Oregon Food Bank!

Carnival-goers will enjoy free soup samples, and will get to make their own dry soup mix to take home – they'll also take home fresh vegetables for their soup, courtesy of Imperfect Produce. For those who sign up for Imperfect Produce delivery at the fair, they'll receive a $5 discount on their first box, and Imperfect Produce will donate an additional $5 to the Oregon Food Bank. It's not just the soup; the raffle items are hot too: gift certificates from Renata, Woodsman's Tavern, McMenemy's, and Human Bean Coffee; t-shirts; and a soup-making toy set! The carnival will have plenty of family fun too, with games like "Milk Mustache" and "Egg and Toast Flip," relay races, and a tattoo booth.

Arnerich Massena and the I AM Learning Partnership would like to invite Irvington and Portland community members to attend "Soup for the Soul" and support the Oregon Food Bank while enjoying family fun.
