Arnerich Massena Welcomes Ryan Cunningham as Investment Advisor

PORTLAND, Ore., September 10, 2014 —Arnerich Massena Inc., an independent investment advisory firm specializing in retirement plan advisory services and forward-thinking investment strategies, announces the recent hire of Ryan Cunningham, CAIA, as investment advisor. In this role, Mr. Cunningham will service public, private, and not-for-profit organizations for the firm's institutional client group.

Mr. Cunningham comes to Arnerich Massena with more than seven years of industry experience. Previously, he served as investment consultant at RVK, Inc. (formerly R.V. Kuhns & Associates, Inc.).

"We are very fortunate that our firm has been able to continually attract the top talent our industry has to offer," said Arnerich Massena's senior managing director Scott Dunbar, "I look forward to sharing the value of his industry experience and acumen with our clients."

Ryan Cunningham earned a Master of Business Administration degree from the McCombs School of Business at the University of Texas at Austin with a dual concentration in finance and accounting. Mr. Cunningham holds the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA) designation and is also a member of the Portland chapter of the CFA Society. He graduated from Santa Clara University with a Bachelor of Science degree in commerce. He is an active member of the Portland Alternative Investment Association and currently serves on the Association's Board of Directors.
